Huge Pistol Halts Freshman Heighe's Billiard Practice, Though His Father's an Assistant District Attorney-Like the Woerz Robber-No Clue to Him.

"Jack the Bell Ringer" is abroad again. He has "held up" a Columbia University fraternity clubhouse just as he held up Brewer Woerz's house and just as he invaded the home of the Talbots. He has again vanished into thin air as though he and his big pistol and his mask and his glittering, deadly eye were of the stuff that dreams are made of.

But in the Delta Phi fraternity house in at 411 West 117th street there are two per- Japan. sons in whose memory he seems still a living presence. They are Charles Brown, the negro butler, and Frederick Heighe, a Columbia freshman. Mr. Heighe, whose home until recently was in Baltimore and who is a stepson of Assistant District Attorney Sandford. has so vivid a memory of "Jack the Bell by him of $1 and a gold watch and chain. The watch belonged to Mr. Heighe's grandfather and was cherished for that reason, as well as because it was worth $250. Brown the butler's vivid memory more concentrated on the large and ugly muzzle of the sinful looking revolver into which he looked when the Bell Ringer first appeared to him.

day evening there were just three persons in the Delta Phi house. Tullock of the class of '07 was in his room on the third floor. Heighe was amusing himself at the Hilliard table in the front, Brown was down in the hallway. It was quiet and snug all over the house when there came a ring at the front doorbell. Brown, who as butler to the club for a considerable term has acquired a nice ear in distinguishing the academic status of bell ringers, knew at the first sound that that bell had not been pushed by an undergraduate. It was the ring of a dweller in the outside world, yet withal a firm, gentlemanly jingle that might suggest a parent or guardian.

Brown opened the door with polite alacrity and found himself looking straight down the muzzle of the largest revolver he says he ever saw in his life. A low but terribly tense voice behind the gun said: "Speak and I'll blow your damned head off! Don't you move! Now, then, who's in the house?"  $\begin{tabular}{ll} $^*T-t-t-t$wo $g-g-g$ entlemen, sah! Jist $t-t-t$wo on 'em, sah!' said Brown, ad$ dressing himself to the muzzle of the gun.

"Take me up there to 'em!" commanded the same hard, low, even voice "Y-y-yes, sah!" said Brown, making a dash for the stairway.

"Stop!" said the voice sternly, and a little more loudly than before. "None of your damn tricks or I'll blow your head in. Now

With this the revolver muzzle was pressed close to the shivering negro's head and he was pushed on towards the stairs, the intruder keeping close by his side every step. But on the stairs the negro either got hys-terical or had some vague idea of giving a warning, for he broke out with a chattering

"Wha-wha-wha't the mattah! Whawha yo' want! Wha-wha's the mattah?" Mr. Heighe here tells what happened

"I heard the sound on the stairs," he said, "and stopped knocking the balls and listened. I heard Charles saying 'what's the matter?' and I thought it might be some 'rough house' prank going on. stepped to the door, and just as I reached it, the portière was pushed aside and the muzzle of a pistol thrust in my face. I still thought it was a college joke. The man with the pistol was masked. He wore a black silk handkerchief with red spots on it over his face covering his chin, mouth, nose and cheeks, almost up to the eyes. His hat was a low crowned, light colored soft one with the top of the crown depressed in a ring that ran all round it-a hat with a pretty wide rim such as was worn a good deal a year or two ago. The man was not over 5 feet 6 inches tall and, I believe, he was not over 22 or 23 years old, and, from what little of his cheeks was visible, I think he was smooth shaven.

"'What do you want?' I said, still thinking it was a joke.

"I want your money and I want it quick,

"Then I knew it was not a joke. I had only a dollar and took it out of my pocket. "'Is that all you've got?' he said. "'Yea,' I replied.

"'Give me that watch, then!' he said. "He held his revolver low now, pointing it at my stomach and he was clicking the lock back and forth with his thumb. I took the watch off. I hated to part with it and told him why. He insisted. I held the watch in my hand and looked down at his revolver, thinking I might get a chance to soak him. He saw the glance and said, 'Come now, hurry up! I'm desperate and won't do any fooling!

"I gave him the watch and he backed away to the stairs and then ran down and out the front door. I went to the window and looked out. He was not in sight. I telephoned to Police Headquarters and in twenty minutes we had seven policemen and detectives here. I told them the story as I have told it to you. This morning I telephoned to Tiffany's and got the number of my watch and gave that to the police. I also reported the case to my stepfather in the District Attorney's office." Capt. McGlynn of the West 125th street station was one of those who went around to the Delta Phi Club after the alarm. He said he had six detectives on the case and that he was doing all he could. Two detectives from the Central Office are also working on the case. The police say that the description of Jack-the-Bell-Ringer as given by Mr. Heighe resembles that given of the Woerz house robber.

PRAISES COLLEGE WOMEN.

The Sanest and Healthiest in the World, Says President Taylor of Vassar.

There was a good sized audience in Cooper Union last night to listen to Dr. James W. Taylor, president of Vassar College, talk on "Recent Objections to the Higher Education of Women," He said among other

"A curriculum which would pay attention only to the storied, interesting side of knowledge without disciplining the mind of women would be no better than that of an old fashioned ladies' seminary. American college women are the most robust, normal, sane, healthy young women, not only of their own, but of any other country."

Gets a Divorce at S7.

Saco, Me., Jan. 25. - In the Supreme Court divorce to Dwight F. Harley, 87 years old, of Old Orchard, Me., who asked for a separa-tion from his wife, Mrs. Hannah Harley, on the grounds of cruel and abusive treatment

JAPANESE STUDENTS MEET. Alumni of Doshisha Give a Dinner to Honor

The New York alumni of the Doshisha University of Kioto, Japan, met last night at Kurata's, the Japanese hotel at 151 East Twenty-seventh street, to give a dinner in honor of the Rev. J. D. Davis, who has been connected with the university ever since its founding in 1875, and to organize a permanent alumni association here. Mr. Davis was not able to be present owing to

When Dr. Mishima, the founder of the university, made an appeal in a religious gathering in New England for aid in founding the university, Mr. Davis was in the audience and he at once made up his mind to assist Dr. Mishima in the oause. As a result, Doshisha University has done much introducing Western civilization in

Some of the sons of Doshisha are in this country as students in higher institutions of learning and as practical business and professional men. Yale has always had one or more of the Doshisha graduates for A crowd collected and a score of policemen several years Although Mr. Davis was not present he Ringer" that he is sure he would recognize a week, because his daughter is to go to a the windows he would on him instantly. Mr. Heighe was robbed hospital for treatment. Of fifteen of the shots at the crowd outside. sons of Doshisha in New York six were present. There were J. Aburatani, of olumbia University, Prof. K. Higashi, who is an expert of jiu-jitsu and some time ago defeated "Ajax" of the police force; J. Oguri, Y. Otsuka of the Yokohama Specie Bank, K. Irye and J. Hashiguchi.

After the dinner one of them read an address to Mr. Davis in spite of his absence About 10 minutes after 6 o'clock on Tues- An organization was formed under the name of the Doshisha Alumnæ Association of the Eastern Part of the United States.

> NIEDRINGHAUS STILL LOSES. Another Republican Leaves Ifim in the Balloting for U. S. Senator. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 25 .- The bolters in the Senatorial fight were increased to-day by the addition of Harry R. Walmsley of Jackson county. He deserted Niedringhaus and cast his ballot for James E. Goodrich. The House and Senate met in joint session at noon and cast the eighth ballot for a United States Senator. The result was: Niedringhaus, 76; Cockrell, 80; Kerens, 12; Goodrich, 2. Total, 170.

Necessary for a choice, 86. The "Filipino" Republicans were loudly heered by the Democrats. A floor leader of the Democrats in the House is responsible for the statement that the Democratic members of the Legislature are only waiting for the consent of Senator Cockrell to cast their votes for Kerens and elect him.

Niedringhaus leaders scout the suggestion that Democrats will throw their vote to

LA FOLLETTE TO HOLD ON. Will Not Give Up the Governorship of Wisconsin for a Time. Madison, Wis., Jan. 25 .- Gov. La Follette was to-day elected United States Senator. His speech of acceptance places the Governor in the light of recognizing his obligation to the people of Wisconsin in his election as Governor, and in effect reserves the right, if this Legislature does not adopt the legislation the Governor demands, of his refusing before the session ends the Senatorial honor and the compelling of another senatorial election by this Legislature. This in brief, is the effect of the Governor's speech. Construed by his opponents, the effects of to-day's session mean that Gov. La Follette will remain Governor of Wisonsin until March 1 and then transfer his political services to the national capital.

SENATOR KEAN REELECTED.

State Officers to Be Chosen by the Jersey Legislature Next Tuesday.

NTON N. J. Jan. 25.-John Kean was to-day elected by the New Jersey Legislature to succeed himself in the United States Senate. Following the joint session of the Legislature, Senator Kean entertained State officials and members of the House and Senate at the Trenton House at a reception and luncheon.

Both houses decided to meet in joint session next Tuesday at noon to elect the State Treasurer, State Comptroller and State Director of Railroads. These officers, as decided in the caucus yesterday, will be Frank O. Briggs, J. Willard Morgan and Charles Bradley.

OPERA LOBBY A HOSPITAL.

Liquid Treatment Given There to Thirty Stung by the Blizzard.

The lobby of the Metropolitan Opera House was converted yesterday afternoon into a species of emergency hospital, in which thirty patients were treated with the remedies obtainable in contiguous barrooms and drug stores. Policeman Brady, who is stationed at Thirty-ninth street and Broadway, escorted the sufferers from cold into the lobby retreat. In almost every case they suffered from frost bitten ears. One man was so overcome that he had to be sent home in a cab, after lying unconscious for an hour. One of the ticket speculators was overcome by the cold

The weather was not too bad, however, to keep a string of subscribers from visiting the theatre to sell their seats at a discount the theatre to sell their seats at a discount to the speculators. There were few purchasers, as the men realized that it would be difficult to get rid of the stock they had.

Mr. Conried was concerned for a while about the wing of the company that had sung on Tuesday night in Philadelphia. The singers arrived two hours late owing to delay in Jersey City. Mme. Sembrich and MM. Caruso and Scotti left Philadelphia at 10 o'clock and arrived in Jersey City only twenty minutes late. But they had to wait two hours for a ferry boat. to wait two hours for a ferry boat.

ISELINS GIVE A DANCE. Rose and Orchid Decorations Inside

Sherry's-Storm Without. Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin gave a dinner dance last night at Sherry's, to which 200 guests were invited. There were actually about 176 seated at the tables, which were trimmed with roses and orchids.
Informal dancing followed the dinner.
Supper was served in the smaller ballroom, after 12:30 o'clock. This was followed by a cotillon led by Monson Morris, who danced with Miss Nora Iselin.

Chenange Dinner.

The Chenango County Society of the City of New York held its fourth annual dinner last night at the Hotel Astor. Two hundred members attended. Elliot Danforth, the president of the society, was Leave of Absence Not Given to Assemblytoastmaster. Martin W. Littleton was to have made the principal response, but on account of illness could not be there. Speeches were made by Edward P. Lyons, William H. Clark, R. J. Mix, Louis Wiley and Postmaster William R. Willcox.

Fire Engines Late Like Other Things.

Folks had to be their own firemen a good part of yesterday. There were a lot of small SACO, Me., Jan. 25.—In the Supreme Court | blazes in West Side apartments. Alarms here Judge Whitehouse has granted a | were rung, and the firemen tried to do their duty, but the storm was too much for them. When they got to the houses after half an hour or so delay, they found that the that she kept too many cats in the | janitor had played the hero and there was nothing for them do do.

MURDERER KEEPS CROWD OFF. Kills His Brother and Staves Off Arrest for Nine Hours.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 25 .- Worked to a frenzy by fancied wrongs and aroused by strong drink George Wagar, aged 55, killed his brother John, seriously wounded Policeman J. F. Klaamyer early this morning, and held a crowd of policemen and citizens at bay from midnight until 9 o'clock, when he was captured by a posse headed by Toby Marshall, ex-marshal of Lake-

The tragedy occurred in the home of the Ashley, and Mrs. E. C. Hall, a neighbor, witnessed the murder. It took place at 11 here. o'clock last night and was the result of a quarrel between the brothers over some land in North Dakota.

George killed John, and then the sisters called the police. Patrolman Klaamyer responded, and when he entered the Wagar house he was shot and wounded seriously. were called, but all feared to approach the house and shattered the windows. Then they climbed through the windows, stole Mr. Barrett maintains that the foreign they climbed through the windows, stole upstairs and surprised Wagar, who was in bed. He is now in the county jail.

HARD ROUNDING CAPE FLATIRON Worst Day the Guardian Cops Have Ever

Seen-Blow at Long Acre Square. Yesterday was the worst day the Flatiron building has ever seen, and it was the fervent wish of the three policemen who were on duty at the Twenty-third street crossing that there never would be another like it. Around the Times Building in Long Acre Square conditions were quite as bad. Pedestrians were lifted up bodily and blown into snow heaps. If it hadn't been for the piles of snow that received them, the list of bruised and maimed would have been large. As it was, no one was hurt at either point. It was a question around which building the wind blew harder. At times it seemed as if the verdict might go to the uptown structure. People were drawn in toward the Times Building if they walked the short block between Broadway and Seventh avenue, whether they wanted to enter or not. Many a man was drawn down the tunnel entrance here that didn't want to ride on the subway. At the Flatiron the sweep across Madison Square Park tossed people every which way. Women fared the worst at both these weather tried points, but they were not $2,000 from it. They escaped with the loss bothered yesterday by grinning onlookers The weather was too much even for the most hardened rubberer.

The wind also kept the sidewalks clear about both buildings, but piled the snow up in heaps in the roadways. The snow shifted from time to time, and where there was a pile early in the day there was none janes have been giving trouble.

Dozens of carriages were stranded around the Flatiron during the day. Early in the day a valient photographer gained the admiration of the cope by setting gained the admiration of the cope by setting up his tripod on a mound of snow in the roadway in front of the Flatiron and trying to get a series of pictures of the building. He no sooner got his camera set than a gust of wind would blow him and it over. In the end he succeeded and made many pictures of the building.

Broadway, in the theatre district, was deserted last night at 2 o'clock. There wasn't anybody out except those who had

A. D. T. BOYS IN WHITNEY'S BOX. He Thought He'd Stay in Hempstead-Actors Dine at the Theatres.

It was a bad day for the theatres. Most of them gave matinées vesterday, but only a few houses had large audiences. The Princess was the only theatre that was closed last night, and the illness of Olive Wilton, one of the leading players of Edward Terry's company, was given

Miss Wilton suddenly developed a case of pneumonia, it was said at the theatre, and as she had no understudy it was necessary to postpone the performance of "Sweet Lavender." It is promised that Clara Earl will know the part by to-night.

The members of the three Savage companies, "The Yankee Consul," at Wallack's. Woodand," at the Herald Square, and "The College Widow," at the Garden, had their dinners last night at the expense of their employer. The performers were fed on the stages of the theatres. The managers of the companies were afraid to let them go home after the matinée.

The attendance at the playhouses last night was larger than the managers expected. The greater part of the audiences were men, protably suburbanites who were stranded in town.

Payne Whitney had intended to go to Fields' Theatre last night with a party of friends, and he ordered two boxes. Before so'clock he telephoned the theatre that he would not be able to attend, and asked them to change the boxes for some other. he would not be able to attend, and asked them to change the boxes for some other night. Mr. Whitney telephoned from Hempstead, L. I., and while he was at the 'phone he remarked that a messenger boy had straggled into his house almost frozen. "Everybody is having a hard time in the city, even the messenger boys," said the man at this end of the 'phone.

"Well, I'll tell you what to do," said Mr. Whitney. "The messenger boys can't be very busy a night like this, so telephone around to the messenger offices near you and see if you can't get some of the boys and see if you can't get some of the boys to use my two boxes."

That is how fourteen messenger boys came to be occupying two boxes at the Fields Theatre last night. There were seven Postal and seven A. D. T. boys, and they had a great time.

TEACHER IN POLITICS. man Hartman.

A motion was carried at the meeting of the Board of Education yesterday to excuse for a year Gustave Hartman, a teacher in Public School 188. Mr. Hartman is a member of the Legislature and has introduced a bill at Albany to increase the school tax.

Mr. McGowan said that he did not think that it looked well to give leave of absence to teachers while they were in politics and take them back in the schools when they fall in politics. He asked for a reconsideration. The vote was rescinded, and the matter went over the pay in meeting. ter went over to the next meeting.

LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE.

YELLOW JACK AT PANAMA.

SIX SUSPECTED CASES ON THE U. S. CRUISER BOSTON.

Japanese Servant a Vietim of the Disease Sanitary Staff of the Canal Zone to Clean Up City of Panama-Our Minister Thinks Measures Will Be Effective.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. PANAMA, Jan. 25.-A Japanese who acted as the servant of the captain of a steamer mother of the man, Mrs. Elizabeth Wagar, here has died of yellow fever. There are on Detroit street, in Lakewood. The six suspected cases of the disease among aged woman, her daughter, Mrs. Laura the officers and men of the United States cruiser Boston, which is in the harbor

These were announced officially to-day by Minister Barrett, supplementing his circular of Jan. 20, answering inquiries from foreign Consuls regarding the disease. in which he stated there had been eighteen cases and three deaths on the isthmus since July 1.

Negotiations between Gov. Davis of the Canal Zone, Minister Barrett and the Govhouse, as the murderer threatened to kill ernment of Panama have just ended, reis in the city. He will stay in the city for any one who would venture near. From sulting, in accordance with the treaty, in the windows he would occasionally fire the sanitary staff of the zone taking complete charge of the sanitation of Panama Friends and the police carried on a con- City. A thorough and sytematic cleaning versation over telephone with Wagar in an of the streets, alleys and yards will be made effort to induce him to surrender, but all and the houses will be fumigated. Every to no avail. At 9 o'clock this morning the effort will be made to prevent the spread police, headed by Marshall, fired into the of the disease. The sanitary force will be Consuls for the sake of the shipping interests of the countries they represent, should know the truth, but he says there is no cause for special alarm for the safety of foreigners if precautions are taken. It is expected that the sanitary staff will eradicate the disease in a few months.

FILIPINOS KILL DR. O'NEILL. Raid by Bolomen in Cavite Province-Were Disguised as Constabulary.

Special Cable Despaich to THE SUN. MANILA, Jan. 25 .- A band of Feligardo's omen rushed the town of San Francisco de Malabon, in Cavite Province, on Monday night, abducted the wife and children of former Gen. Trias, and killed Contract Surgeon O'Neill, U.S. A., who was travelling toward the station with Philippine scouts. Two of the scouts were killed and three were wounded. The bolomen captured twenty carbines.

The bolomen were disguised in the uniforms of constabulary and were under the leadership of two negroes. They rushed the town from two directions in the darkness of the night, thus confusing the garrison, which consisted of fiftyseven scouts and constabulary. Their object was to capture Trias, who, while Governor, suppressed ladronism. The raiders looted the municipal treasury, taking of six killed. Constabulary are in pursuit of the bandits island of Samar, where the fanatical Pula-

Washington, Jan. 25.—Surgeon Joseph Every one who could shunned the Twenty- O'Neili of New York city entered the ser inflammation of the lungs. His tempera-

Owing to the illness of the Prince the Emperor has postponed the festivities that were to have taken place on Friday, the forty-sixth anniversary of his Majesty's birth. A state dinner on Saturday and the church service and a gala opera on Sunday have also been postponed.

HERR KNOTE TO RETURN.

That Is if His Munich Theatre Will Give Him Leave Next Year-Salls To-day.

Heinrich Knote sails to-day on La Savoie. fighter is sure of being rejected, or at least Mr. Conried said last night that he had he ought to. Such proceeding means a completed arrangements for the tenor's loss of money to the careless pugilist, and return next season so far as that is possible rather than take any chances he goes to return next season so far as that is possible at present. He is a member of the company at the Prinz Regent Theatre in Munich, and it is necessary for him to obtain leave of absence from the royal intendant before the dates of his engagement in New York can be settled.

Mme. Senger-Bettaque will be a passenger on the same steamer. Mr Knote received two wreaths yesterday, one from his New York admirers and one with the inscription that it was from admirers from Stricken While Playing the Organ. Octave Whittaker, an insurance manager at 60 Park row, attended a lodge meeting at the Masonic Temple, Sixth avenue and Twenty-third street, last night, and while seated playing the organ was stricken with apoplexy. He was sent to the New York Hospital, where it was said he would proba-bly die. Mr. Whittaker lives at 360 Carlton avenue, Brooklyn. Drank Ginger Ale and Died. A man went into a saloon at Twentythird street and Seventh avenue last night and ordered a glass of ginger ale. While drinking it he dropped dead. From cards in his pocket the police identified the man as Peter Harrison. The body was removed to an undertaker's.

Clayton-Langhorne.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The wedding of Miss Nannie Tayloe Langhorne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Langhorne, and Capt. Powell Clayton, U. S. A., son of the American Ambassador to Mexico, took place to-day at 12:30 in the home of the bride's parents. The bride was attended by her aister, Miss Alice Larghorne, as maid of honor and Capt. J. R. M. Taylor was best man. The ushers were Baron Moncheur, the Belgian Minister, brother-in-law of the groom, Capt. Lassiter, Capt. Logan and Marshall Langhorne, only rei, tives and intimate friends were present at the ceremony and the breakfast which followed. Capt. and Mrs. Clayton will go to Mexico as guests of the former's parents at the American Embassy before settling in Des Moines, where Capt. Clayton is stationed. to-day at 12:30 in the home of the bride's

Washington, Jan. 25 .- The wedding of Miss Alice Ward and Schor Don Juan Risho, First Secretary of the Spanish Legation here for the past five years, took place at noon in the home of the bride's grandmother. Miss Ward was attended by her sister, Mrs. Miss Ward was attended by her sister, Mrs. Chandler Anderson of New York, as matron of honor, and the Spanish Minister Don Emilio de Ojeda, acted as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John Ward of New York. About 250 guests attended the wedding breakfast which followed. The bride and groom left for New York on an evening train, from where they will sail to-morrow for the groom's new post as Secretary of the Spanish Legation in Paris.

WAGNET'S LYRIC COMEDY. "Die Meistersinger" Given for the Farewell of Heinrich Knote.

People went to the Metropolitan Opera House last night to hear "Die Meistersinger." They were not many, but they were brave and devoted. Perhaps it was as a reward for these qualities that they were offered an exceptionally smooth and agreeable performance. They also had the opportunity to hear a brand new and unexpected Beckmesser, in the person of nil Greder

Otto Goritz, who has previously sung the part this season, was a victim of the weather, part this season, was a viotim of the weather, and Mr. Greder stepped into his shoes, his costume and his make-up. Heretofore this singer had been heard only in small parts and has officiated as stage manager (under the personal supervision of Mr. Conried, of course) at German performances. His Beckmesser was modelled on that of Mr. Goritz and was a more than acceptable copy. It was really good and enjoyable.

acceptable copy. It was really good and enjoyable.

Mr. Knote made his farewell appearance as Walther von Stotzing, in which part he first appeared before this public. He was in good voice and was able to repeat the admirable interpretation with which he welcomed himself to America. Mr. Van Rooy was once more the stalwart and amiable Hans Sachs and Mr. Reiss was the familiar David. The other members of the familiar David. The other members of the cast also repeated impersonations now well known to New York and not requiring comment at this time.

WILL APPEAL TO BELMONT. Subway Employees Will Tackle the Head of the Interborough. The grievance committee of the dissatisfied employees of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company have another card to play if the conference to-day with Vice-President Bryan and General Manager Hedley over the demands fails to bring about a settlement. It was decided yes terday in such an event to appeal to August Belmont, both as president of the com-pany and as president of the Civic Federa-In case this appeal fails, then the question of a general strike on the entire Interborough system will be considered.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Interborough was held yesterday in Mr. Belmont's office, but the threatened strike was not considered. Mr. Bryan had an informal talk afterward with Mr. Belmont to the matter. on the matter

Later Mr. Bryan said:
"I can only repeat what I said yesterday that I believe everything will be amicably Asked if the demand for the reinstate-ment of Motorman Pound would be conceded, he said:

"That remains to be decided on to-morrow. I cannot prejudge his case. We have to give him a hearing at all events."

> NO TENDER JUVENALS. Veterans Don't Let Blizzards Hinder Their Feast.

The Masonic Veterans of New York, comsed of men who have been members of the Masonic order for more than twentyone years, had its annual dinner last night in the small ballroom of the Hotel Astor. The oldest member of the society, Dr. Z. It is probable that the army will be ordered to garrison the towns of Cavite province, so as to enable all the constabulary to take the field, as has been done in the Sailors' Snug Harbor on Staten Island.

TIMELY BOXING TALK. Some of the Evils of Holding Fights to a

Every one who could shunned the Twenty-third street crossing and it wasn't until the shops began to send their employees home late in the afternoon that traffic became heavy. At no time was there any great number of people sourrying by the Times Building, not even at night, when ordinarily folks are hurrying to the theatres.

The policemen on duty at Twenty-third street had their hands full, and they were glad when their day's work ended. They long, and they looked like snow men. Most of their time was spent in helping storm to she took his wife with him. The body will be shipped to this country on the Feb. 15 transport. The War Department has informed Dr. O'Neill's father, James J. O'Neill of Schenectady.

KAISER'S SECOND SON ILL.

Prince Ettel Friedrich is Threatened With Preumonia. be shipped to this country on the Feb. 15 the major portion of the attendance. The transport. The War Department has informed Dr. O'Neill's father, James J. O'Neill of Schenectady.

sons or property, or any regulation or practice affecting such rate or facilities afforded in connection therewith, or rules regarding and unscientific men. They indulge in these encounters because they want to get their criminative or unreasonable, to give the names in the newspapers, or else to keep the wolf from the door. The good and clever to declare what rate regulation, classifica-Frince Eitel Friedrich is Threatened With Pneumonia.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

wolf from the door. The good and clever fighter does not need to worry now about making a living with the gloves, thanks to the various clubs in the different cities where he can display his knowledge of the where he can display his knowledge of the of rates, rules, regulations and classification. manly art in public. Although the comthe second son of the Kalser, who will be pensation is not so great as it was four or 22 years of age next July, is ill with incipient five years ago it is enough to keep him from inflammation of the lungs. His temperature want. And, then, another thing, it serves to condition him and give him experience, providing he is just budding as a fighter Strange to say very few fatalities have occurred in these "private" fights. The other day a fighter was killed in Pennsylvania. It was proved in this mill that the victim had not taken any pains about his condition and was in no shape to box even an exhibibout. Most of the clubs where fighting is held see that the contestants are examined by a physician before they are allowed to put up their hands. The principals know that the club will not stand for any man who is in ill health or who has neglected his training. If such is the case the delinquent work and trains faithfully.

It is different with the private bruizers. They go into the ring without the necessary reparation. Sometimes these mills are honestly fought, but in nine out of ten they are fakes." There is usually an understanding tween the rivals as to who shall win. It makes no difference because often the loser receives as much for his services as does the winner. The loser, unless he is ambitious makes no difference Decause often the loser receives as much for his services as does the winner. The loser, unless he is ambitious to make his mark as a boxer, does not care how the trick is done. He will quit, feign a knockout or lose on a fout. There is an entire much dangers, suffering. These mills are fitter stopped by a false or real cry of police, or else something intervenes to prevent the combat from proceeding to a decision.

If a man loses in a "private" essay his reverse is forgotten inside of a week, and if it is remembered there is nothing to prevent the defested man from bobbing up in another part of the proneters of private fights are either saloon keepers or those partial to their intersion keepers or the property if they are able to pass muster of right. This procedure does not entail much trouble to the promoter. All that he has to do ist olispose of the ticket and so on until the has to do ist olispose of the ticket and so on until the has to do ist olispose of the ticket and so on until the procedure does not of the promoter takes a friend in his confidence, gives him the tip, which in turn is given to the purchaser of the ticket and so on until to promoter takes a friend in his confidence, gives him the tip, which in turn is given to the purchaser of the ticket and so on until to promoter the procedure does not forget in a hurry. He has to travel many miles perhaps in a circuitous way if the sport is carciess with any of his unable; these gentry will soon take charge it. Watches and pins often disappear these fights. As one victim recently, it within hearing of The Sun reporter: ie wise ones would not stop at the Flatherithment of the would steal a man's wife if a man stoplish enough to bring her along. pose they would steal a man's wife if a man was foolish enough to bring her along.

The police are not always active in suppressing these mills. Last summer in Harlem two local men met in a fake six round "go." One of the men was in no shape to go on and was outclassed in every way. The warman evidently knew that a fight was in progress, for he entered the hall in nervous fashion rand said to the promoters: "Hurry this thing up, for I'm sfraid they are on," but in the next round one of the principals fell on his back, to all appearances knocked out, and the fight was over.

Main Thoroughfaro Lewis and Clark

Exposition in 1905.

Will be via the UNION PACIFIC. This route gives you 200 miles along the matchless Columbia River and a trip to

PORTLAND AND THE NORTHWEST

WITHOUT CHANGE

Two Through Trains Daily. Equipped with Pullman Palace Cars, Pullman Tourist Cars, Dining Cars, Free Reclining Chair Cars, etc., etc.

INQUIRE OF

R. TENBROECK, General Eastern Agent, 287 Broadway, New York City

ART SALES AND EXHIBITIONS.

ART SALES AND EXHIBITIONS.

M.

SPECIAL NOTICE! The Collection of OIL PAINTINGS

Mrs. Frederick Neilson 100 Fifth Avenue

Together with those belonging to

Mr. Frederick Gebhard

Will be sold on the premises Saturday, January 28th

Commencing at 2 o'clock sharp, Immediately following the close of the sale of the furnishings which is now in progress. The collection of some 150 canvases contains many paintings by representative artists in this Country and Europe.

On Free View, From 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. Thursday and Friday, Jan. 26th & 27th. FIFTH AVE. AUCTION ROOMS, WM. B. NORMAN, AUCTIONEER

TO REGULATE RATES. Three Chicago Organizations Give Advice

to Roosevelt and Congress. CHICAGO, Jan. 25 .- Specific recommendations for the regulation and reform of railway methods were agreed to to-day by the joint committee of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, the Board of Trade and the Chicago Shippers' Association. A copy was sent to President Roosevelt, and others will be mailed to every Member of Congress.

The three organizations will exert all their influence to induce Congress to pass laws in accordance with the recommendations. Should no satisfactory railway legislation be enacted at this session, the President is urged to call a special session. The recommendations, among other things, urge To give the Interstate Commerce Commission power to declare any rate complained of, for the transportation of persons or property, or any regulation or prac-tice affecting such rate or facilities afforded in connection therewith, or rules regarding tion or practice would be just and reason-

To fix and enforce an equitable relation tion as between one city or section and commodities. In case of disagreement between carriers, parties to a joint rate, upon the apportion tment thereof, the Commission to determine the proportion to be received by each carrier.

When carriers voluntarily reduce a rate, such reduction to become effective upon five days' published notice, and when so reduced such rate not to be advanced except forty-five days' notice by publication of the tariff. To give the Interstate Commerce Com-mission power to enforce its order in the premises. Fighters Busy Out of Town. Boxers were very busy in out of town rings on Tuesday night, and some interesting sport was the result. The most important mill took place before the Manhattan A. C. of Philadelphia, where Eddie Hanlon of San Francisco and Harry Lewis met for six rounds. Although nothing more than a novice, Lewis surprised the crack Californian by his cleverness and grit. He stayed the limit and got home several damaging knocks himself. In the first four rounds he jabbed Hanlon repeatedly, but Hanlon's aggressiveness and experience came to his sid and at the end the Californian made a draw of it.

Mr. E. F. EBLE

Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms WM. B. NORMAN, Auctioneer, 238 Fifth Avenue.

This collection comprises SOLID SILVER of George III., Old Dutch, Old English and Louis XV. period. ANTIQUE JEWELRY in Rococo and Renaissance, OLD SHEF-FIELD PLATE, BRONZES, EGYPTIAN and ROMAN ANTIQUITIES, rare specimens of SCARABEI and PHOENICIAN CLASS, WEARONS, and ARMOR MIN. GLASS, WEAPONS and ARMOR, MIN-IATURES, TAPESTRIES, EMBROID ERIES and LACES, Historical and Rare

A CHOICE COLLECTION OF FURNITURE

Louis XV. Drawing Room Suit covered in genuine Aubusson Tapestry ATTENTION IS CALLED TO Pair of Green SEVRES VASES, Reautifully painted and Ormolu trimmed, Rare Old DRESDEN VASE, 45 Inches high, richly decorated with cupids, garlands, Crown and Crest. ITALIAN RENAISSANCE IVORY CARVING. PARSIFAL AND MANY OTHER GENUINELY ANTIQUE PIECES.

Sale begins Wednesday, January 25th, to last until February 4th.

THE Fifth Avenue Art Galleries,

Auctioneer,

son, 368 Fifth Ave. JAMES P. SILO,

Announce the Sale OF THE Persian Government Exhibit at St. Louis, Consisting of Superb Rugs, Embroideries, Ceramics, Jewelry. and Textiles, by order of Mr. Dikran Kahn Kelekian (Persian Commissioner-General). Together with his own collection of magnificent Antique, Spanish and Italian Embroid-eries, Velvets and Textiles, Roman and Greek. Glass. To be held in the Galleries This (THURSDAY) FRIDAY and SATURDAY Afternoons at 3 o'clock.

NOW ON EXHIBITION.

MICKED IN ROW AT PARTY. Mrs. Shaw in Danger of Dying, Police Seek

Four of the Guests. Mrs. Lizzie Shaw and her husband entertained some friends on New Year's eve at their home at 329 East Thirty-second street. During a quarrel among four of their guests, Mrs. Shaw was kicked in the Coroner Scholer was sent to take her ante-mortem statement last night. and detectives from the East Thirty-fifth street station are looking for the four guests.

ondonderry

is to be found among the staple articles of supply in every leading hotel and club in the U.S. should be convincing evidence of its superiority as a table water.